Volunteers Needed - Karis Disability Summer Family Camp

Karis Disability Services (formerly Christian Horizons)'s Summer Family Camp is taking place at Elim Lodge, (www.elimlodge.com) August 26 – 30, 2024.

They are seeking volunteers to help create a memorable experience for families in need of a special retreat. The volunteers walk alongside a family for the week, engaging in many different activities, such as water sports, crafts, drama productions, Zoo to you, fireworks and many other events that are planned throughout the week. That aside, the meaningful relationships that are made is invaluable. By coming together as a community, we can create spaces of belonging where families feel valued and supported. Click here to watch a short video about the experience. Click here for more information and to apply to volunteer.
